

Let's Get Critical!

Critical Writing - ENGCMP 0440

Fall 2022 - Tu/Th 9:30 - 10:45 a.m.

We're all critical thinkers! Think about it: we encounter, evaluate, analyze, and craft a variety of written and visual texts on a daily basis, both "in real life" and online. This course will deepen and broaden the kinds of critical thinking and writing we already do.

With a focus on social and cultural criticism, we will apply a range of critical approaches to current controversies, unresolved issues, social media discourse, and popular culture in the U.S. today. Throughout the term, we will develop original interpretations of cultural phenomena from fresh perspectives.

This course will really get you thinking!
